Handwriting practice lines consisting of a top header section and two main columns of horizontal lines for writing.

A series of horizontal lines for writing, organized into two columns. The top two lines are continuous across the width of the page. Below these, the lines are split into two columns, with a gap between them. The lines are evenly spaced and extend across the width of each column.

A series of horizontal lines for writing, with a central column of lines that are shorter than the outer columns, creating a wide, shallow rectangular shape in the middle of the page.

This image shows a page of handwriting practice paper. It features 20 vertical lines spaced evenly across the page. A central zigzag line is drawn, starting from the top right and moving towards the bottom left, crossing the vertical lines. The zigzag line is composed of several connected segments, creating a series of peaks and valleys. The paper is otherwise blank, with no text or other markings.

A series of horizontal lines for writing, organized into three columns. The first column has 15 lines, the second has 15 lines, and the third has 15 lines. The lines are evenly spaced and extend across the width of each column.
